ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE, TORONTO 5, SEPTEMBER, 1952

COMING TO CENTENNIAL

V. Rev. Henry Carr, C.S.B.

By the Old Boys from 1900 to 1930 the name most honoured is the name of Father Carr who came to St. Michael's in 1897 and received his B.A., from the University of Toronto in 1900.

After his ordination in 1905 Father Carr came to the College staff and the period of academic development which began in that year is largely attributed to him. He prepared the first class of St. Michael's High School boys for Matriculation in 1906. As a result when federation with the University was achieved there was a group of students prepared for the Arts course.

It was Father Carr who in 1909 coached the Junior O.R.F.U. Football team to the championship of Canada, and in 1910, the Senior Hockey team to the Allan Cup, emblematic of Canadian Senior Hockey championship. He continued to coach the first football team until 1927.

Meanwhile he was appointed Superior in 1915 and remained in that office until 1925 when he became Superior of St. Basil's Seminary, and subsequently, 1930-1942, Superior-General.

Since 1951 Father Carr has been teaching at the University of British Columbia. Old Boys will be glad to know that he is coming to the Centennial on September 27th, 28th, and 29th.

Rev. Walter M. Gonter, '07-'12, Buffalo, N.Y. "God willing, will be in Toronto for the Centennial on September 27-28-29."

Charles Holtham, '28-'30, Scranton, Pa. "You can be sure that I will not miss this event as I have been waiting for September, '52."

Rev. Patrick O'Byrne, '32-'36, Claresholm, Alberta. "I intend flying to Toronto for the Centennial and I would be interested in gathering the 3T6 crowd together."

Judge T. M. Mulligan, '07-'11, Port Arthur, Ont. "I enclose card indicating the affairs which we shall attend. I anticipate and hope that the Centennial Celebrations may be very successful."

Jack Wallace, '44-'48, Ottawa, Ont. "I have had the pleasure of meeting a rabid St. Mikes grad down here in the person of Father Radley who is just itching to get back for the do.... See you come September."

Father Robert Moore, '22-'27, Temagami, Ont. "Like many other Old Boys of St. Mikes, I was delighted to receive the notices and agenda of the Centennial Celebrations of the College and am making every effort to be among those present. I enclose the blue cards duly marked."

Rev. E. E. Bmyan, '12-'16, Fort William, Ont. "Wishing you every blessing in preparation for the great occasion."

Dick Cowan, '20-'25, Detroit, Mich. "I was exceedingly pleased to receive the notice of and invitation to the Centennial Reunion in September. I had previously made arrangements to take my vacation in the last three weeks of August. However I will be there at the end of September."

COMING TO CENTENNIAL

Father Basil Sullivan, C.S.B.

Father Sullivan came to St. Michael's in 1915 and stayed for more than thirty years as teacher, professor and registrar.

Father Sullivan is now Superior of St. Thomas More College, Saskatoon, and is returning for the Centennial on September 27, 28, 29.

SIXTY YEARS AGO

In 1892 beginning the fifth decade of St. Michael's history, the year of Golden Jubilee of the Archdiocese of Toronto, there were nearly 200 students enrolled.

The students were for the most part boarders and classes ran into the late afternoon. There were 93 American students coming from 13 States. There were 7 boys from Quebec, and one from Ireland, and the remainder from Ontario. E. Harley from Ireland and J. Hughes from California were the farthest from home.

"The Christmas vacation in the above establishment will commence on the 26th instant to terminate on the 7th of January. Parents are requested to send their children back precisely on the day appointed, as any delay might prove prejudicial to the advancement of the pupils, and to the good order of the College."

St. Michael's College — 1862."ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE, CLOVER HILL

This flourishing institution, under the special patronage of our venerated Bishop and directed by the Basilian Fathers, will on Tuesday next, 17th inst., commence the tenth year of its scholastic career. As parents and guardians occasionally apply to us for information respecting it, we avail ourselves of this opportunity to give some extracts from its Prospectus, with such other remarks as the subject naturally suggests.

Course of Study

"The course of study is divided into two departments—one commercial, the other classical. The first—for such pupils as require only limited instruction, suitable to the ordinary occupations of life—comprises Reading, Writing, the study of the English and French languages, Arithmetic, Book-keeping (by single and double entry), the elements of Algebra and Geometry, History, Geography, and the primary principles of Natural History. The second—adapted to those who wish to follow a learned profession—embraces the study of English, French, Greek and Latin, Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Geography and History (ancient and modern). In both departments pupils are exercised in Literary Composition, according to their age and class. If required by parents, they can also receive lessons in Drawing and Music.

Religious Instruction

"Religious instruction, forming as it does the principal, or rather fundamental basis of all solid education, commands, we need scarcely say, the attention due to its paramount importance. The Professors, in their character of clergymen, are most competent to inculcate, by word and example, the duties and practices of religion; while, having themselves no family ties, they maintain, at all hours, by day and by night, with all the zeal of their sacred ministry, a vigilant watch over the children entrusted to their care. The classes are small; each Professor, having thus but a limited number of students, can more easily guide the progress of the more advanced, and excite to emulation the inactive.

Buildings

"The buildings, of white brick, are beautifully situated on a gentle eminence, 125 feet above the level of the lake, nearly surrounded by shady groves and commanding a delightful aspect. The most desirable advantages of a college are here united—pure atmosphere, the quiet solitude, the charms of the country, and convenience of the city. Two fine ball alleys have been recently erected; these are duly appreciated both by the pupils and their friends, the exp-pupils of the city, many of whom during the hours of recreation renew the recollections of boyhood by sharing the sports of their juvenile acquaintance. A new gymnasium will be added in the course of the present season and extensive improvements in the grounds of the establishment are also contemplated. The College is supplied with very neat philosophical apparatus sent from France by Bishop de Charbonnell, the founder and devoted friend of the Institution.

Alumni

"Already 300 youths have received within its walls the whole or part of their education; among these are several clergymen now on the adjacent missions; physicians, lawyers and others scattered throughout the Province and neighbouring States.

The Faculty

"The Faculty of the College consists of the following gentlemen: Rev. J. M. Soulerin, Superior and Professor of Logic and Natural History.

Rev. C. Vincent, Treasurer and Professor of Divinity.

Rev. L. Gibrat, French and Singing Master.

Rev. M. Ferguson, 1st Classical Master.

Mr. T. Dowling, 2nd Classical Master.

Mr. Leon Cherrier, Elementary Class of Latin.

Mr. M. Mulcahy, 1st English Master.

Mr. Kenneth Campbell, 2nd English Master.

Mr. T. McCarthy, Elementary Class of English.

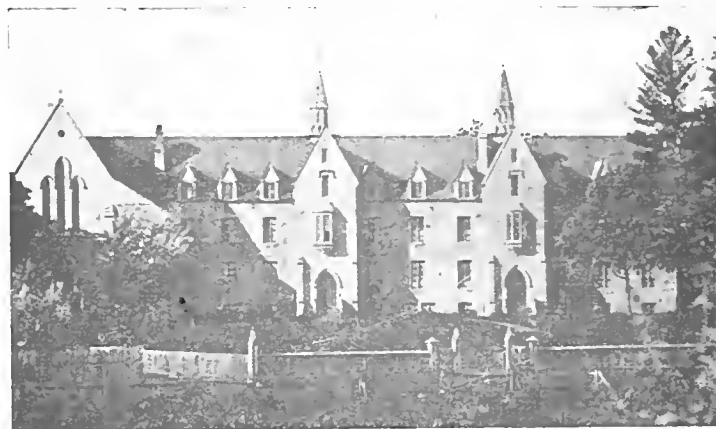

Mr. J. Cushin, Mathematics and Chemistry.

Mr. T. Madden, Master of Discipline.

Mr. S. Klinger, Music Master."
